

Melbourne Social Equity Institute and
Researchers for Asylum Seekers present

REFUGEES AND FORCED MIGRATION

SEMINAR SERIES

Seminars are held on between 1pm and 2pm on Tuesdays at
Melbourne Law School, 185 Pelham Street, Carlton

1 August	Room 224	Behind "Behind the Wire": Sharing New Perspectives on Mandatory Detention	Michael Green and André Dao
15 August	Room 224	Nowhere People Have a Right to Somewhere: Statelessness and the Law	Michelle Foster
29 August	Room 920	"Boat People" and Borders: Changing Political Debate on Asylum Seekers	John Van Kooy
12 September	Room 920	Songs of Celebration and Suffering: Music and Refugees in Australia	Samantha Dieckmann
3 October	Room 223	From Human Trafficking To "Smuggled" Refugees: A Case from North Korea	Jiyoung Song
17 October	Room 920	Rising Seas: Climate change, Displacement and Resettlement	Celia McMichael
31 October	Room 920	Closing the Chapter on Child Detention: Developments in Normative and Legal Frameworks	Robyn Sampson

Topics, speakers and seminar locations are subject to change. For updates, as well as further information about all sessions and speakers, please visit the Melbourne Social Equity Institute website or email social-equity@unimelb.edu.au.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

socialequity.unimelb.edu.au
ras.unimelb.edu.au